The county school superintendent's office was sending out the notifications today of the state eighth grade examinations to be held in this county Friday and Saturday, January 14 and 15. At this time also the sixth and seventh grades will take the examinations in physiology and geography. The teachers are notified to send in the exemption cards held by their pupils, who are candidates for the coming examinations.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors who by their assistance and sympathy so kindly eased us in our sorrow and loss of our devoted wife, daughter and sister, Zella Savage Nelson.

ERNEST L. NELSON,
MR. AND MRS. ELLIOT M. SAVAGE,
MR. AND MRS. W. L. FULLER

Today was house-cleaning day in department No. 1 of the circuit court, and Judge Kelly spent the day hearing motions, demurrers and fixing up the docket for the coming term. Among the cases dismissed upon motion for nonsuit by the plaintiffs were the following: W. J. Carter vs. Jacob Taylor, et al.; J. K. Densmore vs. John W. Schaller; J. L. Stockton vs. N. J. Morris; R. H. Dakin vs. Olson Stoo, et al.; S. Mendelsohn vs. Emma Olson, et al.; A. Loder vs. T. Brown; A. Loder vs. S. W. Jones, et al. The cases dismissed for want of prosecution were Giacomo Giacomo vs. E. Cooper, E. D. Bray vs. L. H. Turner, and Portland Mercantile Co. vs. E. M. Calvert. In the case of William Goodwin against the city of Salem the latter was granted a nonsuit in accordance with the stipulation filed.

The grand jury which completed its session before the beginning of this term of the circuit court, found a true bill against Claud Ross, charging him with rape committed upon the person of a young girl at Mill City. This crime is alleged to have been committed about a year ago and Sheriff Esch held a warrant for Ross' arrest. Ross escaped from this county but was soon sent up from Multnomah county to the penitentiary to serve a sentence of from one to seven years for forgery. He is now at the pen and will be left there to serve out his sentence before he is called to answer on the rape charge. Ross has done time in San Quentin and in Folsom, and his term in the state pen here is his third.

The funeral services for Mrs. Zella Savage Nelson were held at the United Evangelical church, Friday afternoon at 1:30. Rev. A. A. Winter officiating. "Nearer My God to Thee," "Gently Resting" and "We'll Never Say Good-bye" were sung. The casket was borne by Wm. McGilchrist, Jr., J. Sherman Fuller, L. K. DeWitt, Harry Westworth, Dr. John Evans and A. Wallace. Many out of town friends were present among them Miss Hazel Smith, of Albany, Georgia Blewins and Lucille Musgrove, Corvallis; Mrs. A. J. Lange and Mrs. Grover Long of San Francisco; Miss James Fruit and Mrs. L. D. Bennett of Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitcomb, of Cathlamet, Wash., and J. S. Fullerton, of Silverton. Interment was in Old Fellows cemetery.

A suit was filed in the circuit court this morning by W. E. Richardson, an administrator of the estate of Thomas H. Stover, deceased, against the Salem Bank of Commerce. It is alleged in the complaint that Thomas H. Stover, who died intestate in this county July 31st, 1913, had on deposit in the Salem Bank of Commerce the sum of $202.35 and that the bank had refused to pay this sum over to the plaintiff, who states that he is the duly appointed administrator of the estate of the deceased. The plaintiff seeks a judgment in the sum of $202.35 against the bank, and the costs of the action.

Governor West this morning announced that he had turned down the petition of T. J. Leonard, convicted of obtaining money under false pretences in the alleged utterance of what is known as a "phony mortgage" in connection with a real estate transaction, by which he is charged with having defrauded one of the parties to the deal to the amount of $4,500. Leonard was convicted of the charge in the circuit court for Multnomah county and was given an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary, and the decree of the trial court was but recently affirmed by the supreme court.

Go to Dr. Stone's for trusses.

Feeling that, inasmuch as Governor-elect Withycombe as the incoming member of the interstate bridge commission will have much to do in overseeing the construction work upon the proposed new bridge across the Columbia to connect Portland and Vancouver, Governor West has asked the Portland bridge commission to postpone the meeting of the commission for making the award of the contract for the bridge until after the inauguration of Dr. Withycombe. The meeting was originally set for January 4 but Governor West has asked that it be postponed until after January 12, as the inauguration exercises will be held upon that date.

While out exercising with the other patients this morning, Sing Ding, a Chinese patient of the insane asylum, who was committed from Multnomah county about eight months ago, took a notion that he wanted to get away, broke from the line and leaped into the chilling waters of North Mill creek, on East State street, about 9 o'clock this morning. The water is quite deep in the stream at this season likewise freezing cold, and instead of leaping into the stream after the patient the attendants ran down each bank of the stream and waited for him to swim out when he was recaptured without a struggle. He was in charge of Assistant Kemmerer. He was hauled over to the institution as soon as possible to avoid complications which might possibly arise from cold and exposure as a result of his mid-winter plunge.

As a fitting climax to eight years of "good and faithful service" A. Oling, of 61 Mill street, was presented with an egg which measured 6 inches in circumference one way around and 8 inches the other, for a New Year's present by one of his hens, which he considers not only a marvel in point of size and symmetry but also a record-breaker so far as his knowledge of the egg-laying propensities of the ordinary "birdie" is concerned. Mr. Oling says that this hen, which is of the common barnyard variety without any particular pedigree of ancestry, has laid eggs and raised broods of chickens for him unfailingly and uncomplainingly for the past eight years and he is especially, no doubt, justly proud of his favorite's extraordinary New Year's achievement.

December 23, in which petition it is charged that, through the refusal of Major L. A. Bowman to prevent the name of former Captain Harry E. Williams as a candidate for re-election and reinstatement to the command of the company, the election of Captain Libby was illegal. Governor West has been presented with a long protest against the proceedings which culminated in the election of Captain Libby, which sets forth in detail the allegations upon which the protest is based, but the governor will pass the matter up to his successor in office preferring not to take a hand in the adjustment of the troubles of the state militia upon the eve of his going out of office.

Care of Your Eyes

No part of the entire human anatomy is more delicate or easily disordered than the eyes. You may burden your muscular structure, and it will respond with an increased growth. But overtax your eyes and a weakness will result which can be remedied only by glasses properly fitted. During more than 32 years I have specialized in fitting glasses correctly.

Weak eyes, poor sight, painful or inflamed eyes, cloudiness of vision, cross eyes, floating spots, feeling like sand in the eyes, burning smarting or itching eyes, and many other eye troubles can be relieved by wearing glasses correctly fitted.

Let me give you the value of my more than 32 years' experience in fitting glasses for eyes—strain in all its forms.

You are invited to come where absolute accuracy in correcting eye defects is placed above every other consideration. No extra charge for examination.

My prices are lower than elsewhere for the service and material you get of me, and I can refer you to thousands of prominent citizens of Marion and Polk counties that I have fitted since coming here.

The entire problem lies in these words—Rightly Fitted Lenses. All broken lenses replaced while you wait. Office hours, 8:30 a. m. to 12 m.; 1 to 3 p. m. Evenings by appointment.
